

Figure B Hydronic floor heat
Self-leveling compound technique. A boiler or water heater heats water, which is then pumped through a loop of embedded tubing. The warm water heats the floor.